

keltsoy

kellsey

about kellsey

Kellsey, an emerging alt-rock band from Dallas, has been called “the love child of grunge and pop punk” and has been compared to Evanescence and Paramore, with a more modern style. A recent article describes their music as “creating an artistic vision that will obviously connect with many, considering the scarcity of emo, punk and alternative rock projects flourishing in the current musical scene”. Lead singer and bassist Kelly Condy, brings her experience as bassist for Tough on Fridays from Georgetown, to her role as lead singer and bassist of Kellsey. Throughout her career, she has played such legendary places, including House of Blues Main Stage, The Curtain Club in Deep Ellum, and The Mohawk in Austin.

kellsey

@kellseyofficial

bookings@kellseymusic.com

214.603.2033

kellseymusic.com

original music

Butterflies

Released July 26, 2020 on all platforms 3000+ streams

Haunt Your Heart

Released March 13, 2020 on all platforms

press

Voyage Dallas

Published April 27, 2020

Mentioned in The Rock Life

Published May 21, 2020

TuneLoud

Published July 23, 2020

shows

Kellsey shows:

Ridglea Lounge in Fort Worth

Three Links

ACME Creation Lab

Sons of Herman Hall

“Not So Live” Online Festival

Venues played with previous bands:

House of Blues Main Stage

Prophet Bar

Curtain Club

Three Links

Six Springs

Mohawk in Austin

Texas Mist in Austin

Cedar Street in Austin

Roots in Georgetown

kellsey

videos

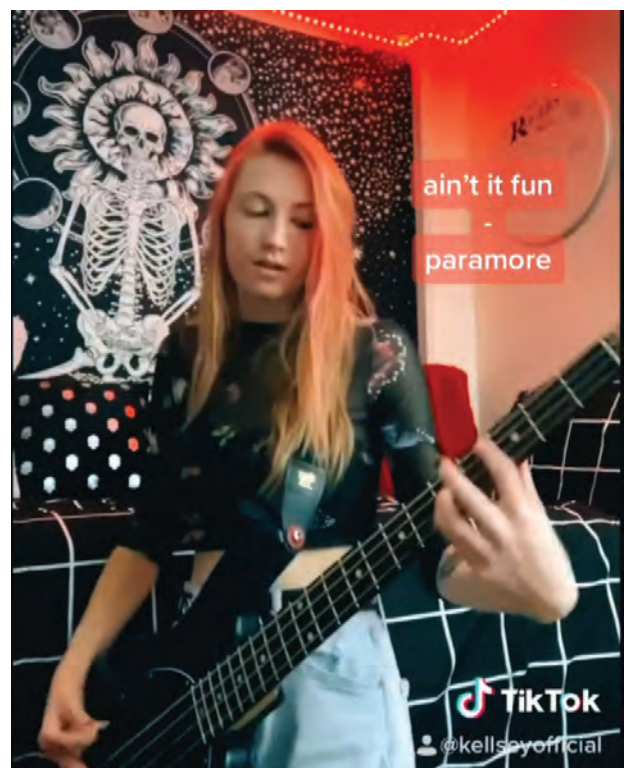

Zombie
The Cranberries Cover

I'm Not Okay (I Promise)
My Chemical Romance Cover

Celebrity Skin
Hole Cover

Ain't It Fun
Paramore Cover